

Artist of the Month—Alexander “Sandy” Turnbull

Alexander “Sandy” Turnbull is considered a “painterly artist” who portrays his subjects using vibrant color, expressive strokes and a respect for good composition. Over the past 10 years, his medium of choice is pastels, using them for commissioned portraits of people, animals and landscapes.

He is an artist now living in The Villages, Florida with his wife of 46 years. He was born and raised in Tampa, Florida. After graduation from college and service in the U.S. Air Force, he worked as a mechanical design engineer, which included design of mechanical systems in commercial buildings. He has also produced architectural renderings for contractors and a real estate developer.

Throughout his forty plus working years, he improved his artistic skills in classroom studios, personal studies, and numerous workshops. He has taught art for a retail commercial art supply company and has given painting demonstrations and art lessons.

Currently he is a member of the Village Art Association, the Village Art League and the Central Florida Pastel Society.

