February 2020

Message from our Co-President - Eileen Sklon:

Hello Fellow Members,

I want to thank everyone for the warm welcome I received as your new co-president last month. It was a good meeting to start the year! Thanks to all the members who displayed their artwork and shared information on it. This group is great because of members sharing and helping each other!

Fran Naughton / Eileen Sklon

We have a great demo this meeting. Former Art Teacher, Award Winning Artist, George Rusovick will be doing a talk on the intent or motivation for doing art.

I look forward to seeing you at February's meeting. I will leave you with this quote:

"Art is as natural as sunshine and as vital as nourishment." - Mary Ann F. Kohl

2020 VAL Officers: Gail Parker, Treasurer; Fran Naughton and Eileen Sklon, Co-Presidents; Adeline Curlett, Vice President; Judy Kimmel, Secretary.

Have you renewed your VAL membership?

Annual dues of $15 cover membership from January through December.

Artist of the Month—Laurie Martinson

I am from Maryland and this is our third winter in The Villages. I have been painting most of my life and, besides a few college art courses, am self taught. I paint in watercolor and acrylic.

After a long career in nursing with art as a hobby, I am now able to devote more time to my passion to painting which I do on a daily basis.

Most recently I have been working on a series of small detailed watercolors on aquaboard. I also have an ongoing series of painting on vintage photos called cabinet cards which I turn into breast support greeting cards.

February Program—George Rusovick

I was a high School art teacher who taught in the Rochester, MN Public Schools for many years. I live part-time in Rochester, and was a resident of Fort Lauderdale, FL for 16 years. I have been an active artist since a young child. After retiring, I concentrated only on my own art. Throughout the years, I entered many juried art exhibits, won awards, and have been successful in selling my work in various galleries in Minnesota and South Florida. I have my art in many private and public collections.

Researching and teaching various art media to children and adults has enabled me to be engaged and skilled in a variety of art media and has given me the experience to have many insights into various aspects of art.

I will talk on the intent or motivation for doing art. The photos are examples of the different ways that I create my own work. From my experience in The Villages, a lot of people interested in art seem to look at the media as more essential than the concept or intent of the artist. (An example would be calling an artist by their media: colored pencil artist, watercolorist, charcoal renderer, oil painter, acrylic master, etc.)

It's like viewing art as a craft that can be mastered by taking enough workshops, studying, etc. We're all enthralled and inspired by a successful artist with a pleasing style. However, I feel the purpose of producing one's own art is not to emulate someone else but to do something more personal and original regardless of its acceptance.
